

Gloucestershire 16 days of action to raise awareness of coercive and controlling relationships
Calendar of event 2016

25th November

'Reclaim the Night' stop violence against women and girls march

Venue: Shire Hall, Gloucester

Time: 6pm

Organiser: GRASAC (Gloucestershire Rape and Sexual Abuse Centre)

Launch of countywide coercive control awareness posters and social media messages.

29th November

Lecture by Dr Jane Monckton-Smith, 'Are you afraid of someone? Understanding coercive control, stalking and homicide'.

Venue: Kingsholm Rugby Stadium; Prior booking required

Time: 6pm

Organiser: Gloucester City Council

November-December

Information and awareness bus providing information to rural communities

Date: 29th & 30th November and 1st, 5th & 7th December.

Organiser: Forest of Dean District Council

Gloucestershire Safeguarding Children's Board roadshows; including workshop of relationship abuse in teenage relationships

Organiser: GSCB

Venue: Various: Prior booking required

4th December

Remembering Women; memorial event for those women killed by men in the last year.

Organiser: Chelt FEMS and Gloucestershire Sisters

Venue: Montpellier Gardens, Cheltenham

Time: 5pm

5th December

Domestic Abuse talk by Nick Gazzard of the Hollie Gazzard Trust

Organiser: Stroud District Council

Venue: Stroud District Council, Council Chamber; Prior booking required

Time: 4.30pm

7th December

Crime Prevention Day

Venue: Gloucester City, Kings Walk

Time: 9am-5pm

Organiser: Gloucester City Council

8th December

Understanding Coercive Control Conference

Venue: Hatton Court Hotel; Prior booking required

Time: 8.30am-3:45pm

Organiser: County Domestic Abuse and Sexual Coordinator and The Hollie Gazzard Trust

10th December

Awareness raising day: turning purple to mark world human rights day and stand up against abuse

Organiser: Cheltenham and Tewksbury DASV Forum

www.glostakeastand.com

To end all types of violence and abuse